

ICAR-CRIJAF organized training programme on “Farm Pond based Integrated Farming System for Higher Income Opportunities” under SCSP

Three days training programme was organized for SC farmers on “Farm pond based Integrated farming system for higher income opportunities” under SCSP scheme from 25 to 27 July, 2023 at ICAR-CRIJAF, Barrackpore. A total of twenty five farmers from Joykrishnapur, Dudkumar, Chhatimtala and Gouripur villages of Nadia district participated in this training programme. During this training programme, resource persons from ICAR-CRIJAF delivered lectures on improved production technologies of jute, rice, vegetables, animal husbandry, vermicomposting, leaf litter composting, natural farming, organic farming, micro-irrigation, weed management, resource conservation technology, integrated farming system. Educational visit to the fibre museum, field visit were also organised for the farmers to demonstrate the In-situ jute retting pond based farming system model, compost pit developed by ICAR-CRIJAF at South Farm. During the valedictory session of the programme, the trainees were felicitated with certificates by the Director, ICAR-CRIJAF in presence of guest from other ICAR institute. The farmers were highly satisfied and motivated to adopt the pond based integrated farming system technology for upliftment in socio-economic condition and livelihood security. The programme was organized by Dr. Gouranga Kar, Dr. Ritesh Saha and Dr. Sourav Ghosh (Course Directors) along with Dr. Sonali Paul Mazumdar and Dr. Debarati Datta (Course Co-ordinators).

