

Report on the celebration of Foundation Day at ICAR- Central Research Institute for Jute and Allied Fibres (ICAR- CRIJAF), Barrackpore, Kolkata

The ICAR-Central Research Institute for Jute and Allied Fibres (ICAR- CRIJAF), Barrackpore, Kolkata celebrated its 67th Foundation Day on 9th February, 2020.

Various Programmes including Plantation programme, cake cutting, Annual Sports meet for Staff and family, prize distribution were organized by the Institute. Officers from various ICAR Institutes located in Kolkata viz. ICAR- National Institute of Natural Fibre Engineering and Technology (ICAR-NINFET), ICAR - National Bureau of Soil Survey and Land Use Planning (ICAR-NBSSLUP) and ICAR- Indian Veterinary Research Institute (ICAR-IVRI) graced the celebration with their presence.

Dr. Jiban Mitra, Director, ICAR–CRIJAF welcomed all the Invitees and cited about the significant contribution of ICAR-CRIJAF in terms of development and release of several jute varieties.

Dr. Subrata Satpathy, Head of Division, Crop Protection, ICAR-CRIJAF referred to the significant development of the Institute since its inception.

The Best Worker Awards were conferred to two awardees under two different categories (Administrative and Technical).

