

TRAINING ON TECHNOLOGICAL EMPOWERMENT OF FARM WOMEN

A training on “Technological empowerment of farm women” was jointly organised by the Womens Cell and All India Network Project on jute and Allied Fibres, ICAR CRIJAF, Barrackpore from 5 to 7th March 2020 at ICAR CRIJAF. Fifty five women farmers from five different villages under North 24 Parganas and Nadia Districts had participated in the programme. The Director of the Institute Dr. Gauranga Kar had graced the occasion as Chief Guest. He stressed on the importance of entrepreneurship development programmes for women and also urged the participants to utilise the opportunities to the best. Dr. S. Mitra, Incharge AINPJAF and Course Director of the Training programme had welcomed all the participants and briefed the purpose of the training. Dr.A.K. Ghorai, Head, Crop Production division, Dr. S.Satpaty, Head Crop Protection, Dr. C.S. Kar, Principal Scientist, Crop Improvement division were also present in the inaugural session. In the training, major emphasis was given on new and improved women friendly agriculture technologies, various women empowerment schemes, Empowerment of Women through Self Help Groups etc. The trainees were very much satisfied with the training content and had actively participated in the sessions. A quiz competition were also conducted for the participants on 6th March 2020. The training was concluded on 7th March 2020. Dr. Jiban Mitra, Head, Crop Improvement had distributed the certificates to the participants. The winners of the quiz competition were also awarded during the valedictory.

The participants of the training programme along with Resource Persons and Director, ICAR CRIJAF

