

Report of Farmers' Awareness Program on 'World Environment Day' under Institute STC-TSP Program

An awareness programme on 'World Environment Day' was organised by ICAR-CRIJAF, Barrackpore on 5th June 2023 at Huda village, Nadia district under Institute STC-TSP, Program. Dr. Rinku Bharali, SMS (Horticulture), KVK North 24 Parganas (Addl) welcomed the participants and briefed about the programme. Dr. Shailesh Kumar, Principal Scientist, ICAR-CRIJAF delivered a lecture on "Jute based products: An alternative to single use plastic". Dr. Debojyoti Borkotoky, SMS (Animal Science) shared information on "Use of plastics and its role in air and water pollution". During the program, plantation program of neem tree saplings was organized in the village and saplings were also distributed to the participants for plantation in their backyard. Altogether, 50 farmers of Huda village participated in the World Environment Day program.

Photos of Awareness program on World Environment Day

Lecture delivered by Dr. Shailesh Kumar, Pr. Scientist, Agril. Extension Section, ICAR-CRIJAF

Participating farmers of Huda village

Tree plantation by Dr. Shailesh Kumar, Principal Scientist, ICAR-CRIJAF

Group photo of the participants